

Job Posting Teaching/Research Assistant (m/f)

The Chair for Economic Theory (Prof. Dr. Johann Graf Lambsdorff) at the University of Passau, Germany, seeks to fill a vacancy for the two-thirds position of a

Teaching/Research Assistant (m/f)

from October 11, 2007. The position is limited to a 3-year-period. The job is paid according to 13 TV-L (German collective wage agreement; two thirds).

Your responsibilities include the preparation and the supervision of university courses, the support of administrative tasks as well as the implementation of research projects. The conferral of a doctorate will be an integral part of this position and is actively supported.

Having completed outstandingly a university degree in business administration and/or economics (master level), or in a business/economics-related field, you dispose of excellent skills in the research and teaching topics of the Chair, particularly in „Governance and Anticorruption“ or „International Finance“.

We expect from you to work independently and in a highly motivated fashion. Moreover, you should possess surpassing analytical and conceptual skills and outstanding command of both German and English.

The University of Passau aims at increasing its share of women in research and teaching and welcomes applications. Severely disabled people with essentially similar qualifications will be given preference.

Please send your application (in German or English), encompassing CV and references as well a short description of your planned dissertation (max. 150 words) to:

Universität Passau
Wirtschaftswissenschaftliche Fakultät
Lehrstuhl für VWL mit Schwerpunkt Volkswirtschaftstheorie
Prof. Dr. Johann Graf Lambsdorff
Innstrasse 27
94032 Passau
Germany

We are looking forward to your application!